

Saturday Workshops In Your Town

Fairport Public Library (Telephone Number 223-9091)

01/09/10 50+ Job Search: Debunking the Myths, 9:30am

This workshop will address the most common concerns employers have related to hiring mature workers including myths and challenge the beliefs of mature workers that can be barriers to getting a job. Research will be presented that counters negative stereotypes of mature workers and what job search strategies and interview skills will result in more job offers.

01/16/10 50+ Job Search: Is Your Resume a Gate Opener or a Gate Closer?, 9:30am

There are red flags in resumes that immediately disqualify the sender. Without misleading an employer, you can create a resume that emphasizes your qualifications and eliminates inappropriate age discrimination.

01/30/10 50+ Job Search: Where Have All The Jobs Gone? Online and Offline Job Search, 9:30am

Discover how to select the best on-line job board, ways to benefit from the features available, and precautions you must take. Determine how on-line networking (LinkedIn, etc.) might help in your search.

02/06/10 50+ Job Search: Networking at 50+: Yes You Can!, 9:30am

Networking is not about creating an elevator speech and repeating it to everyone you know. To be effective, it is much more than that. Re-evaluate your approach. Upgrade your networking skills. Learn how to get past shyness to have helpful conversations.

02/13/10 50+ Job Search: 50+ Interview: Counteracting the Age Factor, 9:30am

There are serious concerns on the part of the interviewer that you can address to your advantage if you understand those concerns. There are common mistakes often made, with the best of intentions, by the more experienced worker. Discover how to prevent those mistakes and prepare for age related questions.