RochesterWorks! Offers New Training Grants for Non-profit, Human Service Organizations

Rochester, NY—November 13, 2008—RochesterWorks! (www.rochesterworks.org) has available new grant funds for small and medium sized, non-profit, human service organizations in Monroe County. The grants are intended to help employers meet the demands for skilled workers and upgrade the skills of their employees earning between $8.00 and $25.00 per hour. Organizations may request up to $5,000 per application, for training that can be completed within six months.

Applications will be accepted on a continuous basis. Selection will depend on available funding and the number of quality proposals. Applications can be downloaded at www.rochesterworks.org. For more information contact Christina Bakewicz, Business Services Manager for RochesterWorks!, at 232-5232 or cbakewicz@rochesterworks.org

RochesterWorks! is dedicated to helping Monroe County develop a strong workforce. RochesterWorks! helps job seekers find jobs, move to higher paying jobs or get training to improve skills. RochesterWorks! assists businesses with recruitment, assessment, placement and training, and connects them to all federally funded employment and training programs in Monroe County.
