RochesterWorks! Offering Free Speed Networking Event for Job Seekers on November 10

Rochester, NY—October 28, 2010—RochesterWorks! (www.rochesterworks.org) will offer a free Speed Networking Event on November 10 from 4-7 p.m. to help job seekers learn first hand how important networking is to successfully make connections and develop job leads. The event will be held at the Main Street Armory at 900 East Main Street in Rochester. There is no charge to attend and parking is free.

Job seekers will participate in unique structured networking sessions to learn more about companies, job leads and industry trends, and share their own knowledge and expertise with others. Attendees will rotate in pre-arranged groups and can expect to make at least 15 connections during the event.

Pre-registration is required and no walk-ins will be accepted. Register at <http://rwspeednetworkingnov1010.eventbrite.com/>.

RochesterWorks! is dedicated to helping Monroe County develop a strong workforce. RochesterWorks! helps job seekers find jobs, move to higher paying jobs or get training to improve skills. RochesterWorks! assists businesses with recruitment, assessment, placement and training, and connects them to all federally funded employment and training programs in Monroe County. RochesterWorks! has helped attract millions of dollars in funding to support Monroe County companies and organizations.

Services are available at two convenient full service Career Centers at 255 North Goodman Street and 276 Waring Road in Rochester. Services are free of charge.
