

General Forge Helper

Entry level position working as a grinder to grind edges or surfaces of cut metal or blank rings to specifications outlined by management. Employees are frequently promoted from this role.

What's in it for you?

- Full time hours
- B shift (12 hour shifts) 5:00pm-5:00am (mandatory weekends)
- $12.50 (+.50 shift differential)
- All the overtime one could want
- Temporary to hire (based on performance) at a company to build a career with

What is the job?

- Working as a grinder in the grinding area
- Use either a hand grinder or swing grinder to grind the edges or surfaces of either billets of but metal or blank rings to specifications outlined by management
- Remove hot metal parts from a furnace and feed them to the press or ring mill operator on a manufacturing large press or ring mill
- Become OSHA & Company certified to operate a forklift, with basic forklift operation experience
- Act as a replacement for key personnel that are absent for the day on the shift (
- Assist on setups where additional departmental manpower will aid production
- Move parts within WIP to their next scheduled department
- Assist management of scrap throughout the facility
- May be required to wear a respirator

What you bring to the job?

- Previous forklift experience (in a manufacturing environment)
- Strong manufacturing experience
- Ability to pass a math test
- Ability to pass a Background Check, Drug Screen and Physical (including respiratory)

HOW TO APPLY: Submit resume by email: Kristin.smith@manpower.com