

A SUCCESSFUL HEALTHCARE CAREER

STARTS AT ROCHESTER REGIONAL

If you're looking for a dynamic career, and are interested in healthcare, Rochester Regional Health can get you started. As a licensed practical nurse, certified nursing assistant, or certified home health aide, you can have peace of mind with job security and the opportunity to find the position that fits your schedule and interests.

Learn more by visiting
RochesterRegional.org/Workforce

Connect With Us
585.922.1381

ROCHESTER
REGIONAL HEALTH

Rochester Regional Health offers the following education and training programs to get you started in a career in which you'll grow and thrive:

Isabella Graham Hart School of Practical Nursing

- 10-month, full-time program
- Small class sizes and one-on-one instruction by experts in nursing and nursing education
- Supportive staff
- Curriculum designed to help you pass the National Council Licensing Exam for Practical Nursing
- Affiliation with Rochester General Hospital, nationally recognized for nursing excellence
- Accelerated placement opportunities for students with prior nursing school experience
- Affordable tuition and financial aid available

Certified Nursing Assistant Training

- 6-week program
- Training is free and you earn money while attending class
- Potential to start as paid unit assistants at one of our nursing and rehabilitation centers
- Opportunity to learn through classroom instruction, hands-on and clinical experiences
- Use of state of the art simulation lab in our new training center, Wegman Center for Workforce Development
- Instructor with extensive experience in both nursing and education

---

Home Health Aide Training

- 3 ½-week program
- Opportunity to learn through classroom instruction, hands-on and clinical experiences
- Use of state of the art simulation lab in our new training center, Wegman Center for Workforce Development
- Low cost or no cost training available through grant sponsorship or employment sponsorship through Rochester Regional Health